S.R. Kulkarni, ITO & Others .. Respondents.

Mr.M.K. Kulkarni for the petitioner.

Mr.S.R. Chauhan i/by Mr.Ashok Kotangale for the respondents.

CORAM : DR.S. RADHAKRISHNAN &
J.P. DEVADHAR, JJ.

DATED : 26TH FEBRUARY, 2007.

P.C. :

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner has neither received assessment order nor demand notice and only acknowledgement for having received the same were taken by the department, however, the petitioner has not received the same. He also concedes that till date the department has not taken any steps against the petitioner.

3. Since these are disputed questions of fact, we are not inclined to entertain this petition. The writ petition stands dismissed.

4. The petitioner is at liberty to adopt appropriate proceedings before the appropriate authority in accordance with law.
